During Passover this year (which coincided with our 6th convention), we crossed over into a new season or dimension in God. We are not in the same place that we were before our convention - the spiritual landscape has changed, but for many of us, we have remained the same. We still pray the same, think the same and struggle with the same issues. This is why the discipline of counting the omer (see May newsletter) has been so crucial for us all. As we have taken time to allow God to reveal negative attitudes, sin and iniquity in our lives, we have been afforded an opportunity to repent and change!

In the last week, God has taken us a step further and impressed on us that as Hebrews - those who have crossed over - it is time to be circumcised again! In Joshua 4 and 5 we see how the Israelites, once they had crossed the Jordan, built a memorial to God and then were circumcised by Joshua. There needed to be a cutting away of the flesh before they could move into the promised land. It was a final closing of the door on the disobedience and rebellion of the Wilderness.

In the same way, we believe that God is calling for a fresh circumcision in our lives. There is some flesh that needs to be cut off so that we can finally close doors to the past that keep beckoning us to return to Egypt. It is time to ask of the Lord what 'flesh' needs to be cut in our life. What habits, attitudes and even relationships are serving our flesh and keep drawing us back into sin and rebellion. It is time to cut them off. The sins of the flesh (that chocolate cake, those TV programs) that constantly draw you away from fulfilling an instruction from the Lord - it is time to sharpen the knife and cut them off. For many people, it is time to cut off some old relationships. Especially those that only deliver constantly negativity to your life. The sad fact is that not everyone can go with you into this new season!

The circumcision will be different for everyone - each person needs to go before the Lord and inquire of Him what needs to be cut in their life. Then we have to be obedient and do it! 2011 is a year to be positioned. That is why every instruction from the Lord needs to be heeded and obeyed. Our obedience to even His smallest word is designed to adjust and move us into our Kingdom position. And right now the instruction we are hearing is to cut off and then close the door on the last season!

I strongly believe that a new season will begin at Shavuot / Pentecost this year - 8 June 2011. The Feast of Shavuot is about God giving Israel the Ten Commandments - His Marriage covenant. He confirmed this covenant on the Day of Pentecost when He sent the Holy Spirit as a seal... and birthed the Church. Both events happened 50 days after Passover - when God's people had dealt with their flesh and closed the door on Egypt. They had made a decision to serve the Lord and be His covenant Bride.

Pentecost is upon us and I believe that God is again looking to visit a people that have prepared themselves to be His Bride and have made a decision that they will serve His purposes no matter the cost. He is looking to visit us and empower a people to be His ekklesia in the earth. Remember, Katie prophesied at the convention that "God wants to restore Pentecost". This is the same word that James Goll released to us in 2006.

I do not understand everything that is going on, but I know that this Pentecost is significant in God's calendar and we need to be prepared for it. Inquire of the Lord what needs to be circumcised in your life then cut it out! This is the only way that the 'reproach of Egypt will be rolled away'. (Joshua 5:9) Then we will be ready to stand before the Lord, confirm our marriage covenant and receive a fresh empowering of the Holy Spirit to fulfil His Kingdom mandate in the earth!
